London S.W.

August 11/88

My dear Gray

I suppose this letter will just reach you before you start and anticipating the great pleasure of shortly seeing you & Mr Gray I have little to say except that that pleasure will be still further increased by the prospect of seeing also Mr.
& Mrs. Alphonse de Candolle who are coming over here to meet you next month.

I have just finished Breckan and am now at Lynton after —

What I shall take up, remain whilst Hodder is here at work at Saltus

Ever yours

George Beatham
